Pre-School Autism Class

St. Finbarr's BNS, with the approval of the Minister of Education and Skills, established an early intervention class to provide education exclusively for pre-school children with an autism diagnosis.

St. Finbarr's welcomes children and their families to apply for a place in the class. Referrals for the pre-school autism class are made by the parent. The enrolment form must be completed, including all necessary reports.

The principal, the class teacher, and learning support teachers will meet with the parents to discuss the child's strengths and needs for the academic year. This meeting will assist in clearly identifying the supports required to provide a quality educational experience for the child.

The school endeavours to work closely with parents. This partnership is very important as all stakeholders want the best outcome for the child. As such, parents will keep the school informed of any new assessments or appointments that will support the child in school. The school will also inform parents about the child's progress formally and informally.

On occasion, the Principal and teachers may need to speak to parents about a child's progress and overall suitability for the class. The overarching outcome is for the child to be placed in the most suitable environment that meets their learning needs.

Unsuccessful applicants and their information will be kept on file and reviewed in line with the admissions policy should a place become available.
